STATEMENT OF THE FINANCE MINISTER re : THE BUDGET ESTIMATES FOR 1967-68.

Sri RAMAKRISHNA HEGDE (Minister For Finance and Planning).— Sir, the House is aware that on 2nd May 1967 the Chief Minister made a statement explaining why discussions on the Budget and voting of demands for the year could not be taken up during the short session. The main reason given was that there was a cut in the IV Plan outlay and there may be cuts in the Central assistance assumed. The Budget which has already been placed before the House was based on tentative allocations and our Plan for current year had not been discussed with the Planning Commission in detail. Subsequently the Union Finance Minister presented the final Budget on 25th May 1967 and one of the main assumptions made in his Budget was that the Central and State Governments will not resort
